

Associate of Applied Science Organizational Management

Emphasis: Victim Advocacy Management

U.S. residents age 12 or older experience approximately 23 million crimes each year. As organizations expand their victim compensation programs, the demand for skilled leaders with competence in victim services and crisis management will continue to increase!

At Mesa Community College (MCC), our Associate of Applied Science degree in Organizational Management with an emphasis in Victim Advocacy is designed to give you the competency, tools, and capabilities necessary to successfully meet the need for qualified leadership in managing an organization's victim advocacy services!

Why Our Associate Degree?

- Few fields can match the range of importance and fulfillment opportunity potential found in victim and crisis management.
- You'll learn how to work with others, communicate effectively, and develop traits such as initiative and a desire to attain goals, two of the qualities that are valuable requirements in today's victim advocates.
- Day, evening, and online course offerings available.
- Students who successfully complete this AAS occupational degree are eligible for admission to the BAS occupational program at any of the participating Arizona public universities.
- Ready to get started? Turn this card over for detailed course scheduling information.

Why Mesa Community College?
